HUSBAND - Jacob Barnes

According to THE VIRGINIA MAGAZINE OF HISTORY AND BIOGRAPHY, published by the Virginia Historical Society, Vol. XVI, 31 Dec 1908; reprinted with permission of the original publisher by Kraus Reprint Corporation, 1968, House of the Society, Richmond, VA, 707 East Franklin Street, pp. 203-204:

The 13 children of Edward BARNES and 2nd wife, Mary MILLS, daughter of John MILLS, attorney of Salisbury, England, whose brother was mayor of Salisbury, included: JACOB, "now living in Virginia, &c." (p. 203) Shown below in more detail:

"Among a few scattered notes copied from MSS of J. BARNES relating to persons with the name of Barnes, is the following: 'Edward BARNES, who marry'd first wife ANNE COCK [NOTE: this is likely ALICE COCK], by whom he had 8 children, Eliz. & John, &c., both whom dy'd of ye Great Plague 1664, w'th all their children. His second wife MARY MILLS, Daughter of John MILLS, attorney of ye City of Salisbury, whose Brother was Mayor of Salisbury. Of her he had 13 children, MARY, now living, married to WILLIAM MEREDITH, a Cheshire man, a Baker, JACOB, now living in Virginia, &c. MARTHA, wife of FELIX RHYMES an Oxford man, by whom one Daughter MARY, married to RICHARD MILLARD, who has two sons, Rob. & Rich. both living, and a Daughter dead. Another Daughter MARTHA, born 1705, Nov.'" (p. 203) "JOSHUA BARNES I, who dyed a 7 aetat. ABRAHAMS, two, both dead, ISAAC, DANIEL, SARAH, and JOSHUA, II, now 50 years old, 1704." (p. 204)

c.1648/1649        Probably London, England. Jacob Barnes was born.

Date Unk.        "Among a few scattered notes copied from Mss of J. Barnes relating to person of the name Barnes, is the following: "Edward Barnes, who marry'd first wife Anne Cock, by whom he had 8 children, Eliz. & John, &c, both of whom dy'd of ye Great Plague 1664, with all their children. NOTE: Susan Pope was the sister of Sarah Pope, who married Edward Barnes, the son of Jacob Barnes.

08 Feb 1709    Hemingford, Huntingdonshire, England. J. Barnes wrote to T. Hearne, Feb. 8, 1709, that he is at Hemingford to meet his only brother Jacob, who after 32 years' absence, made a voyage from Virginia, where his wife and children are, only to see the writer." [9] This source stated: We are indebted to Mr. M. Ray Sanborn, of Yale University Library, for the following notes from Hearne's Remarks and Collections. The J. Barnes mentioned was of course Joshua Barnes, the famous Greek scholar, He was the son of a London tradesman, was sizar Emmanuel College, Cambridge December 11, 1671, B.A. 1675, MA 1679, regius professor of Greek 1695. He died August 3d, 1712, and was buried at Hemingford, Hunts.

13 Jul 1719    Isle of Wight Co., VA. Thomas White of The lleofwhite county son of Jno White and Rachel Jordan Daughter of Joha From other sources it appears that this name should be Joshua. The letter s was probably omitted by the recorder.* Jordan of The sd County having declared their intentions of taking Each other In marriage Before several Publick meetings of the People called Quakers in virginia were married in a Publick meeting of friendes in The sd County on this thirteenth Day of the Seventh month in the year one Thousand Seven hundred and nineteen. [10]

22 Oct 1720    Isle of Wight Co., VA. The estate of Jacob Barnes was appraised by Thomas Copeland, Henry Pitt, Humphrey Marshall. Recorded: 27 March 1721.[11]

27 Nov 1738 Isle of Wight Co., VA. A much later record shows the estate of one Jacob BARNES appraised by Robert KING, Humphrey MARSHALL and William SMITH with Francis FLOYD signing also; this was recorded 27 Nov 1738 (WillBk4:219). Whether these are for the same man or not is unknown. That the names Jacob BARNES and Joshua were used by descendants of the other BARNES families in that section makes it likely that there was some relationship." [12]

NOTE: This was not the Jacob who was a son of an Edward Barnes, b. c.1706, died in Southampton Co., VA, c.1762.

"[i]t has been shown fairly conclusively that Edward Barnes (will devised December 5, 1761, Proven March, 1762; md. Sarah Pope) of Edgecombe County, NC was NOT the son of James Barnes (will devised March 2, 1719/20, Proven October, 1720) of Isle of Wight County, VA. Researcher Margaret Van Ness Nelson published a well documented article making the case that James' son Edward was actually the Edward Barnes who devised his will in Southampton County, Virginia on July 15, 1761 (Proven March 11, 1762). These two Edward Barneses were different men. See, " Which Edward Barnes was the son of James Barnes, Isle of Wight County, Virginia?" by Margaret Van Ness Nelson, published in "Trees of Wilson: The Newsletter of the Wilson County Genealogical Society", March, 2000, Volume 9, Number 3, pages 4-7." _-----

- CHILD 1 - Edward Barnes (Continued)
- c. 1706            Probably Virginia. Son Joseph was born.
- c. 1708            Probably Virginia. Son Nathan was born.
- c. 1710            Probably Virginia. Son William was born.
- 28 Apr 1711        Nansemond Co., VA. Edward Barnes patented 131 acres east of Chowan River in Nansemond County.[2] Nansemond County was formed in 1637 from New Norfolk County. It was first called Upper Norfolk County, but in 1642 it was named Nansemond for an Indian tribe.
- c. 1712            Perhaps Nansemond Co., VA. Son Abraham was born.
- c1710-1715        Perhaps Nansemond Co., VA. Daughter (first name unknown) was born, age estimated, married a Wiggins. She had died by the time her father made his will because he referred to two granddaughters surnamed Wiggins. But if the granddaughters were grown and then married men named Wiggins, this hypothesis does not hold.
- c. 1716            Perhaps Nansemond Co., VA. Daughter Mourning was born.
- c. 1718            Perhaps Nansemond Co., VA. Daughter Charity was born.
- c. 1720            Perhaps Nansemond Co., VA. Daughter Mary was born.

- 06 Apr 1722        Chowan Co., NC. Edward Barnes patented 340 acres west of the head of Chowan River and south of Indian Creek Swamp in Chowan County.[3] Chowan Co. was established in 1670 as a precinct of Albemarle Co., VA.
- 02 May 1722        Chowan Co., NC. Edward Barnes patented land on Buckhorn swamp/Indian creek, according to deed of 25 May 1743.
- After 1722         Edward Barnes lived near the present Riddicksville in the extreme northeastern corner of Northampton County, an area included in Bertie County from 1722 to 1741.
- 26 Mar 1723        Chowan Co., NC. Edward Barnes and Richard Holland patented 460 acres west of Chowan River and west of Mirey Meadow adjoining Joseph Ballard, John Gay, John Davison and Godfrey Lee.[4]
- c. 1724            Chowan Co., NC. Daughter Sarah was born.
- c. 1726            Chowan Co., NC. Daughter Patience was born.
- 27 Oct 1726        Perhaps Chowan Co., NC. Edward Barnes's name was mentioned in connection with lapsed patents, according to a web page that did not give a reference for this.
- 01 Aug 1727        Chowan Co., NC. Edward Barnes patented 540 acres west of Chowan River and south of Indian River, west of Mirey Marsh and along Mirey Meadow.[5]
- 11 Aug 1727        Chowan Co., NC. Edward Barnes patented 575 acres west of Chowan River "known by the name of the Nansemond town" and south of Indian Creek.[6] (The preceding patents totaled

CHILD 2 - Anna NOT PROVED DAUGHTER OF JACOB Barnes

From Thomas Boylan of Rome, GA, "The Barnes Family," p. 5 (no date). Thomas Boulger was married to Sarah Smith (dau of William and Mary Smith); Sarah Boulger and both of her parents left wills in Isle of Wight naming a granddaughter (and niece) as Anna Barnes - another of the Smith daughters, Ann, had married a Wesson (Weston) (see wills of Isle of Wight). Thus Jacob Barnes was very involved with the Smith family, perhaps having married a Smith.

CHILD 3 - Jacob NOT PROVED SON OF JACOB THE ELDER Barnes

27 Nov 1738 Isle of Wight Co., VA. The estate of Jacob BARNES was appraised by Robert King, Humphrey Marshall and William Smith with Francis Floyd signing also; this was recorded 27 Nov 1738 (WillBk4:219). He may have been the Jacob Barnes who died in 1720, but he also may have been that Jacob's son.
