WIFE	- Theodocia Phidelia Leatherman "Delia" (Continued)
	According to the Texas Death Index, 1903-2000, online at www.ancestry.com , Mrs. T. P. Barnes died in Tarrant Co., TX, on 12 Feb 1936, Certificate #11151.
	Pauline remembered her as being very strict. She did not allow her grandchildren in her parlour except for a very few occasions to see the stereopticon or hear the Victrola.
	Rootsweb.com has a cemetery page for Mount Olivet, Tarrant Co., TX, which shows her tombstone as: "Mother Delia (T. P.) Barnes 1849-1935 Asleep in Jesus." Dates are apparently off by one year.
	The identity of her second husband and how long they were married is unclear. There appears to have been a short-lived marriage around 1910. City Directory Listings for Theodosia Fidelia (Leatherman) Barnes Hoggard All at 806 Missouri Street, Fort Worth, Tarrant Co., Texas

Pauline remembered John as being older than her father, had no children. He and his wife were dull, not fun people.
Additional information from Barbara Rains in email to Cecilie Gaziano on 29 Aug 2000, barbrains1@juno.com. Barbara Rains's ex-husband was a grandson of Charles Henry Joseph Barnes and Theodocia Leatherman. She stated that Charlie and his brother, John F., had a grocery and feed store in Fort Worth and lived with their mother. The brothers had a falling out, and Charlie went to work as an insurance adjuster, first at the Bank Loan Company and then for Rhea Mortgage Co., she said.
According to the Texas Death Index, 1903-2000, online at www.ancestry.com, John Franklin Barnes died in Tarrant Co., TX, on 19 Oct 1947, Certificate #44053.

Pauline did not remember the name of her uncle Robert, so she thinks he may have died young. He did not appear in the 1900 Tarrant Co., TX, census in his mother's home. She was listed as having 8 children, 6 living. John, Ophelia, Charles, Maud, and Ozella were named, and Pauline recalled hearing about Philip, so Robert appears to have died before the 1900 census.
CHILD 3 - Phillip Napoleon "Phil" Barnes
Information from Pauline Barnes Prescott and the 2 1880 censuses for Berry Henderson BARNES.
Berry Henderson Barnes required his children to promise him on his deathbed that they would not drink liquor. Phil was the only one to break the promise, so Pauline's parents would not visit him. She said he had two daughters, who did not live in Texas (she did not remember which state). Later information is that he had three daughters.

Information that Philip/Phillip Barnes married Rebecca Jane Stephens is from two websites: the International Genealogical Index, submitter unknown, at www.familysearch.org (LDS site). Information also obtained from wc.rootsweb.com web page of Robert H. Laxton, "Laxton family Archives, pbbans@hotmail.com; last updated 19 Sep 2006. Laxton's page states that Philip/Phillip Barnes died about 1941. The IGI information showed siblings of Rebecca Jane Stephens being born in Handley, Tarrant Co., Texas, about 1885 and later. Philip N. Barnes's parents lived in Handley, now a part of Fort Worth, at that time. This circumstantial evidence bolsters the conclusion that the marriage information is accurate.

Barbara Rains's ex-husband was a grandson of Charles Henry Joseph Barnes and Theodocia Leatherman. She stated that Charlie and his brother, John F., had a grocery and feed store in Fort Worth and lived with their mother. The brothers had a falling out and Charlie went to work as an insurance adjuster, first at the Bank Loan Company and then for Rhea Mortgage Co., she said. Rootsweb.com has a Tarrant Co. Mount Olivet Cemetery page with photos of gravestones. The one for Charles says: "Father Charles H. Barnes July 14, 1877 - July 22 1943." CHILD 6 - Maud M. or Ida May Barnes Information from Pauline Barnes Prescott and the 2 1880 censuses for Berry Henderson BARNES. Maud had a step-son but no other children. Maud/Ida May was in only one of the duplicate 1880 censuses.
