HUSBAND - Isaiah Burton Sr.

Information below is from: Francis Burton Harrison, "Burton Chronicles of Colonial Virginia," privately printed 1933; scanned, reformatted, and reprinted by GoldenWest Genealogy, 5812 Temple City Bl., PMB705, Temple City, CA 91780-2112; www.gwest.org.

"iv. The fourth son of John Burton of Cobbs(later known as "Old John Burton" of Chesterfield, was Isaiah Burton, who was born about the year 1698.

"In 1728 his father deeded to him 85 acres on the south side of Falling Creek 'for valuable consideration of 5 shillings current money.' In 1736 Henry Cary of the county of Henrico deeded to Isaiah Burton 600 acres in the "parish of Dale for 36 lbs current money .. bordering on land of Caleb Ware." The last named, as already stated, lived near the highway between Manakin Town and Pocoshock Run. The Henrico order book contains several items concerning Isaiah Burton; the first of these was on October 16, 1738, (p. 64) in which it was ordered that 'Isaiah Burton, James Burton .. with their tithables do assist Thomas Burton with his tithables to clear and keep that road in repair of which the said Thomas Burton was appointed surveyor at January court .. 1737.' The second Order in February 1745 contains the following item: 'John Branch appointed surveyor of the road from Mannakin Town to Pocoshock Run and all male tithables of ... Isaiah Burton, Isaiah Burton, Jr., Caleb Ware, (etc.) ... to assist him.'

"The Chesterfield Order Book in October 1751 records: 'a deed & mem endorsed from Isaiah Burton to John fowler was acknowledged by the said Isaiah, and his wife being privately examined and Relinquishing her Right of Dower in the lands thereby conveyed etc.' The deed referred to is in Chesterfield Deed Book 1, at page 282, and is dated April 3, 1751, conveying 600 acres in the county of Chesterfield to John Fowler of Henrico; men-tion is made of Caleb Ware's line. Signed Isaiah (X) Burton. Witnesses: John White, Mathew (X) Hobson and Nathaniel (X) Burton.

"This John Fowler was no doubt a cousin of Isaiah's; the Nathaniel Burton who witnessed the deed may have been a son of the grantor." (pp. 71-72)

". Three deeds of which abstracts now follow, show that Isaiah Burton, Senior, moved to Albemarle county some time before 1757, and probably after 1753, in which year his wife Obedience brought suit against Charles Burton in Chesterfield county. Chesterfield Deeds III, page 120: 'Indenture .. March 4, 1757 between Ware Rockett of the county of New Kent .. and Isair (sic) Burton of the county of Albemarle .. 30 pounds .. tract .. in the county of Chesterfield .. 200 acres .. south side of James river being part of a large tract of land containing 1500 acres belonging to Thomas Burton as by his deed it may fully appear .. white oak in the head of Rocky Run.' (No witnesses recorded.) WARE ROCKETT.

"The grantor in this deed who was a cousin of Caleb Ware, the next door neighbor of Isaiah and of his brother Thomas Burton, had obtained this tract of land by conveyance from Thomas Burton in 1745. At that time "Ware Rockett, carpenter" resided in Dale parish. The balance of his 1500 acre tract was divided up by Thomas between his sons John and Thomas Burton in 1753.

"On the same day upon which Isaiah Burton received the conveyance of the 200 acre tract from Ware Rockett, he sold the 81 acre tract given him by his father John Burton in 1728.

"Chesterfield Deeds III, page 129: 'Indenture .. March 4, 1757 .. Isair (sic) Burton of the county of Albemarle (sic) .. and Abraham Cowley of the county of Henrico .. 50 pounds .. parcel .. in the county of Chesterfield on the south side of Falling Creek .. 85 acres .. bounded by land of John Baker and Jacob Waddle.' ISAIAH BURTON. (No witnesses recorded.)

"The John Baker mentioned was one of the two witnesses who, the year preceding this deed, had proved the will of "Old John Burton", the father of Isaiah. John Baker purchased in 1761 the land of James Burton, a brother of Isaiah, when this James left the family hive on Falling Creek for the new region of Charlotte county.

"Chesterfield Deeds IV, page 456: 'Indenture .. Oct. 20, 1763, between Isaiah Burton Senior, of the county of Buckingham .. Planter .. and John Burton (son of grantor's brother Thomas) of the Parish of Dale in the county of Chesterfield .. 28 pounds .. tract in the said county of Chesterfield .. 200 acres it being at the upper end of Thomas Burton's tract.' (Sgd.) Isaiah Burton. Test. William Burton, John Worsham, John Trabue.

"We have not pursued the Isaiah Burtons into Buckingham county; it is understood that there is no will on record there in that name. One branch of this line later moved to South Carolina and thence to Georgia, as indicated by the citation given above. Scions of this stock were still in Buckingham in 1814 as shown by another reference herein-before.

"Isaiah Jr. is the only son who may with complete certainty be ascribed to Isaiah; Nathaniel seems in all probability to have been a second son; it is possible that the William who witnessed the foregoing deed was another son. (pp. 73-75)

Isaiah BURTON Jr. moved to SC 1769 - or before, Isaiah, Jr. is found in SC petitioning for a plat of land situated on Mudlic Creek in Berkley Co., SC - now Newberry Co. - on March 14th was certified for him; and the Grant for the land was signed on 19 June. 1772. This was land abutting land of Benjamin BURTON (brother).

From Bob BURTON: Looky what I find in 1772. 1/18/1772: Pursuant to a precept, bearing the date 1/7/1772, I have admeasured and laid out unto Isaac Mitchell a plantation or tract of land containing 450 acres situate and lying in Craven County on the waters of Little River and Saludy (runs through middle of Newberry Co, joins with Mudlick Creek), bounding NW on Robert Gillum's and Isaac Mitchell's lands, NE on Isaiah Burton's land, to the east on Benjamin Burton and David Davenport's land, SE on land owner unknown and John Samson's and Hopkins William's land , SW on Richd Golding's land. Apparently no grants were issued for 400 A in Isaiah's name. He may have sold the warrants to another party.

1775 - March 7 Dedimus issued to Robert CUNNINGHAM Esqr. to prove the Will of Isaiah BURTON dec'd. & qualify the Exors therein named. Per Probate Records of SC, Volume 2 No Will found..

From Bob BURTON - 7-17-2008 Today, I received a letter from the SC Department of Archives and History and they confirmed what I feared. They could find no record of the will that was mentioned in the SC Journal of the Court of Ordinary. Apparently, the will has been lost. Below is my revised note. _

3/7/1775: "Dedimus issued to Robert Cunningham, Esqr. to prove the Will of Isaiah Burton, dec'd. & qualify the Exors therein named. " Recorded in SC Journal of the Court of Ordinary 1771-1775, page 250. From book "Probate Records of South Carolina, Volume 2", compiled by Brent H. Holcomb. I looked for this will in the "Abstracts of Wills of South Carolina" (through 1785) and searched for it in the red book "Index to South Carolina Wills", and could not find it anywhere. Per a 7/10/2008 letter received from the SC Department of Archives and History, "It would appear that the reference to the will in the Court of Ordinary Journal is the only surviving evidence of his will."

"The 1805 will of Magdaline Burton Dibrell of Buckingham County, VA, mentions her niece Elizabeth Sanderson and Elizabeth's children: William, Robert, Jane, Elizabeth, Sally, and Nathaniel."

Some information is from: "Ancestors of Mary (Jones) Flood, PDF compiled by H. Edgar Hill, ed@hill-ky.org, January 2013, <http://www.floodfamily.org/reports/FloodMaryJones.pdf>. He stated: "Marianne Dutoi and Christoffe du Breuil had the following child: 6. i. Jean Antoine DuBreille, son of Christoffe du Breuil and Marianne Dutoi was born on 15 May 1728 in Manakintown, Henrico Co. [later Goochland Co.], VA. He died in May 1799. He married Elizabeth Lee, daughter of Thomas Lee and Elizabeth Anne Keene in 1756 in Buckingham Co., VA, at the home of John Fern. She was born about 1730 in Lancaster Co., VA. She died in 1770 in Buckingham Co., VA. He married Magdaline Burton after 1777. She died in 1806." (page 12)

"With young children to raise, Anthony married Magdalene Burton perhaps around 1772. There was no success in finding out about her parentage. There are quite a few Magdalene Burtons, but none of those found were the correct one. It is assumed that she lived in Buckingham County." (page 6)

Also see: "Genealogies of the Lewis and Kindred Families" edited by John Meriwether McAllister, Mrs. Lura May Boulton Tandy, E.W. Stephens Publishing Company, 1906. Available on Google books. This source states that Magdaline Burton and Anthony Dubrell had no children and that she died in 1806.
